Book Fair: teachers were very happy to receive books from families. Mrs. Pageler mentioned that it was really sweet too receive a book from a former student as well as her current students.

Treasurer Report:

We have been busy ordering items for the second round of staff requests. It's great to get the items ordered and in the school.

Committee/Project Updates:

- a. Bingo Night Recap – Bingo Night was a hit. We filled the gym with all the tables and chairs we had.
- b. Book Fair – We had record sales at our book fair! Approved for a BOGO fair: looking at May 17-19th.

- c. Golf Tournament – The date has been finalized of Sunday, June 4 with an 8am Shotgun start. It will be at River Oaks Golf Course in Cottage Grove. For golfers the fee would include 18 holes, riding cart, range balls and lunch. For people who don't want to golf, they will be able to come for lunch and the silent auction/raffle. This is aimed to be a community fundraiser to raise money for the PTA. Families, grandparents, friends, and neighbors would be welcomed and encouraged to attend. We have lots of interest and have had a number of foursomes sign up.
- d. Staff Appreciation Week – May 8-12 – We need a committee to help plan staff appreciation week. In the past we have done snacks for staff, a meal for staff, flower sales on Friday of that week.
- e. End of the Year Bash – May 19 – This time we are trying food trucks (Eggroll Queen, Floyd's Mini Donuts and Shaved Ice, Steven D's) instead of pizza. We are hoping for good weather and a full turn out.

Other Comments:

PTA board elections will be held at the May 11th PTA meeting. We will need a new president, treasurer, and secretary.

Adjourn: Lauren motioned to adjourn the meeting at 6:56pm and Moira seconded it.
